

This is the attendee view. You will also have this view in sessions where you are not speaking or moderating.

Below you can see that if attendees click the green on button they have access to audience interaction such as the discussion forum, Q+A, and live polls.

If a poll is started, the attendees will receive a notification. This will encourage them to go vote on the poll.

